

For our client, a first quality Swiss bank, based in Geneva, we are looking for a

Data Governance Manager position based in Geneva

Your Responsibilities

- Define and optimize the global data strategy & governance (vision and execution)
- Coordinate, create and develop data standards within the Group
- Optimize data management solutions by leveraging existing and new technology
- Create reports and metrics
- Create synergies and best practices
- Lead governance forums and working groups on data quality issues
- Manage the relation with external consultants

Our client offers

- The opportunity to join a dynamic bank with entrepreneurial and team spirit
- A long term vision
- A bank with strong values
- A diversified activity
- An attractive compensation

Your qualifications

- University degree (HEC, EPFL) or equivalent
- Confirmed experience and proven track record as project and data manager
- Competences in management or supervision of a team would be an advantage
- Knowledge of the banking industry
- Very good knowledge of data systems used in financial environments
- Excellent customer service and communication skills
- Analytical and autonomous
- French and English
- Swiss national or valid C permit.

Please contact us or address your application to :

Marta Buckmaster
ESA Partners
8 rue du Conseil-Général
CH-1205 Genève
Tél. +41 79 109 45 97
marta.buckmaster@esa-partners.com

ESA Partner is a Swiss firm, based in Geneva, active in executive & talent search for banks and financial institutions.