

For one of our most prestigious client, a private bank in the Geneva area, we are looking for a

Crypto-currency / ICO Research Analyst ENG/FR

Job Description

- Develop and prepare digital asset market data research and analysis
- Provide weekly market analysis, research reports and industry overviews
- Research and update continuously crypto-currencies, ICOs and blockchain technologies
- Prepare and deliver complex technical information in a clear and engaging style to various type of audience (Management, Private Bankers, UHNWI, EAMs, Family offices...)
- Participate to investment committees

Our client offers

- The opportunity to join a dynamic bank with entrepreneurial and team spirit
- A bank with strong values and a long-term vision
- A diversified activity
- An attractive compensation

Your profile

- University degree (HEC, EPFL, ETH, MIT) or equivalent
- Confirmed experience and proven track record in a Research and Investment department of a bank or financial institution (preferably active in Wealth Management)
- Passionate about the crypto-currency market, underlying technologies, digitalization and data science
- Very good knowledge of “classic” financial products and any relevant Swiss regulations
- Experience in managing multiple projects simultaneously
- Effective at working with multiple stakeholders (both internal and external)
- Advanced skills in computer science and statistics
- Excellent customer service and communication skills
- Strong data analysis, strategic thinking and autonomous
- French and English
- Swiss residency or able to be relocated.

Please address your application to crypto@esa-partners.com

Full confidentiality guaranteed.

ESA Partners SA is a Swiss firm, based in Geneva, active in executive & talent search for banks and financial institutions.